A Woman Horse Thief.

A young woman giving her name as Pearl Hughes was arrested Saturday at Carlisle by Deputy Sheriff James Mitchell on a charge of horse stealing. It is charged that she stole a horse worth about $60 from a man by the name of G. W. Wooten. It is claimed that the horse was stolen in Maysville and brought to Lower Blue Licks, in Nicholas county and traded for another horse worth about $40. She claims to have purchased the horse for $15. She gave her aged as nineteen years.

"Lovers and Lunatics."

The Ledger-Dispatch, Norfolk, Va., says:

"The Granby was packed to the doors with them last night, and they gave by sight and sound evidence that they were pleased, from the rising of the curtain upon fourteen pretty girls in scarlet, with green underpinnings until the end.

"Lovers and Lunatics' is worth while. It really is what it is put down on the bills—a dainty musical farce. There are several good voices among the company, and the bits of music, with which the drama is interspersed, lighten it up very pleasantly. Joe Morris, the star, as 'Ikey Rosenstein,' is very diverting. He is more than that, he is entertaining. The company is very large and all join in perfect union to send the play along with spirit. Nothing drags, there are no lags and there are no dull spots.

"The play is splendidly dressed and mounted. Light, joyous and without purpose but to amuse innocently, the play pretends to be and is. If there is anyone who has a couple of idle hours this week, they can dispose of to advantage at the Granby.

"So many things happen during the evening that it is useless for anybody to try to tell about them. The cheapest thing and the quickest is for those who want to know to go."

This excellent attraction is to appear at the Paris Grand Saturday, December 15, for two performances, matinee and night.

Tobacco Sales.

George W. Ellis bought of L. D. Redmon 6,000 pounds of tobacco at ten cents per pound; Joe Booth bought of James Gillispie, 14,000 pounds at nine and ten cents. Near Little Rock, this county, J. W. Thomas, Jr., made the following purchases of tobacco: Of J. W. Vincent and H. C. Gillispie, 8,000 pounds at eleven cents per pound, and 5,000 pounds of Hubert Parks at ten cents per pound. At North Middletown, Kenney Nichols bought of Kelley P. Moore 25,000 pounds of tobacco at eleven and one-half cents per pound, and of Will Stewart, 5,000 pounds at nine and one-quarter cents per pound. In the same section the American Tobacco Company bought the following crops: Of Frank Collier, 10,000 pounds at eight and three-quarter cents per pound and O. H. Martin 10,000 pounds at 10 cents per pound.

Real Estate Sale.

The following real estate sale was lodged for record: J. E. Terrell to N. W. and L. R. Huffman, nine acres, part of the James Sager farm in Centerville precinct. Consideration $200 and parcel of land in Montgomery county.

Bourbon Circuit Court.

The entire day in Circuit Court Friday was consumed in the inquiry into the mental condition of the negro, Bob Gibson, under indictment for detaining a woman against her will. After a number of witnesses were examined, and the prisoner himself taken before the jury, it was finally decided that Gibson was of sound mind, and witnesses were then recognized to appear Monday as his case was set for trial on that morning.

Considerable business was disposed of by Judge Stout Saturday. After motion hour Judge Stout announced his decision in the case of J. W. Wright vs. Bayless, in which he sustained the validity of the mortgage and dismissed the petition of the plaintiff.

In the case of J. D. McClintock against seven members of the Republican County Committee, Judge Stout overruled the motion of the defendants' attorneys and struck from the record certain affidavits and one hand bill.

In the cases of Newton Current, etc., convicted of selling liquor to a minor at the June term of court, Judge Stout overruled motion of defendants' attorney to quash capias which will require the issuance of new bonds. The cases may be carried to the Court of Appeals.

Judge Stout then took up the case of E. M. Dickson, executor of the estate of the late A. W. Wright, against John W. Wright. In October, 1905, Mr. Wright who was then more than ninety-two years of age, and incapacitated from old age of looking after his business affairs, entered into a contract with his son, John W. Wright, to attend to his business, including the management of his two farms and in consideration of his services gave him the proceeds of the two farms for the year commencing January 1st, 1907.

The executor now asks the court to appoint a receiver for the estate for the purpose of renting the land as above stated. Numerous witnesses were heard on both sides and after arguments by Mr. Dickson and Robert C. Talbott, Judge Stout took the case under advisement and will announce his decision some time this week.

The case of the negro, Bob Gibson, was gone into yesterday morning and took up the whole day and went over to this morning. The defendant is represented by Attorneys Williams, Brennan and Grannan, who are contesting every inch of the way for their client. At an intermission of the court yesterday for a few minutes a jury was called to try the case of Laura Turner, colored, of Millersburg, on a lunacy warrant. The jury decided that she was of sound mind.

New Paper For Lexington.

It was reported that a number of leading Democrats of Lexington had made arrangements to organize a company and change the Kentucky Gazette from a weekly into a Lexington afternoon Democratic daily the first of the year, and that one of the well-known newspaper men in Kentucky had been engaged as managing editor of the new venture.

Judge Wm. Beckner Suspended.

Judge W. O. Harris, of Louisville, special judge appointed by Governor Beckham to sit in the disbarment proceedings against Judge Wm. Beckner, of Winchester, rendered a judgment
Friday suspending him from the practice of the law in all the courts of this Commonwealth for a space of two years.

The decision of Judge Harris came as a surprise and a disappointment to Judge Beckner's many friends who firmly believe that the charge would be dismissed.

Judge Harris arrived Friday morning on an early train from Louisville. He went immediately to the Circuit Court room where the defendant, Judge Beck-ner, was awaiting him. He first read his opinion which covered sixteen typewritten pages. The opinion was based on the record of the case of Stuart vs.
Harmon, and covered a period of eighteen years. He took up every phase of the case giving the reason for his opinion in each. When he had finished reading the opinion the read the following judgment:

The case coming on to be heard and having been argued by counsel and the court being sufficiently advised, delivered its opinion in writing which is ordered to be and is filed and made a part of the record and in conformity thereto it is considered and adjudged that respondent, Wm. M. Beckner, be and he is hereby suspended from the practice in each and all the courts of this Commonwealth for the space of two years from and after the rendition of this judgment to which respondent in person excepted. It is further adjudged that the court recover of the defendant its costs herein expended.
(Signed) "W. O. HARRIS."

New Law Upheld.

Jacob Shubinsky, proprietor of the Surprise store at Lexington was fined $50 and costs in the Fayette County Court Saturday for violation of the fictitious name law which was passed at the last session of the Legislature. This law provided a penalty for individuals and firms doing business under a fictitious name without formal certification of the fact in the office of the County Clerk. Mr. Shubinsky is the first person in the State to be punished under this law, and as he pleaded ignorance of the law he was not given a jail sentence in addition to his fine which the law provides may be imposed. Mr.
Shubinsky is proprietor of the Lexington Chattel Loan Company, and had secured judgment against a negro for a debt of $50 due the company.

In pursuance of the judgment Mr.
Shubinsky levied on the negro's furniture, and in this way attention of the officers was called to Mr. Shubinsky's violation of the law.

Inspect Asylum.

The State Board of Control for Charitable Institutions, composed of Percy Haly, chairman; Dr. Milton Board and
J. G. Philips, arrived in Lexington, Saturday morning for monthly inspection of the account of the Eastern Kentucky Asylum for the Insane. The business of the board was purely of a routine character, the member spending the entire day at the asylum inspecting the institution and going over their accounts. Chairman Haly said he would call a special meeting of the board some time before the new year, but that he did not know exactly when to take up the matter of election of superintendents and other officials of the asylums and other charitable institutions of the State.

Turkey Thieves Arrested.

Lee Mason and John Hays, two young negro men, were arrested near Muir Station and locked up on the charge of stealing turkeys from James Harp, who lives near Muir Station. The arrests were made by County Detective J. W.
Marshall, County Warden James Peel, and Deputy Sheriff William King, all of Fayette.

The strongest evidence against the negroes was secured by the detectives in finding a lot of offal and turkey feathers near the home of Hays. A search for the fowls will be made.
Mason lives in Lexington on Upper street.

THE HORSE A COWARD

He Labors For Us Because We Him and He Feels to Rebel

Imprimis, the horse is a coward. He made him so—an unwarlike, who fears everything which he is unfamiliar; nothing, ever horrible, to which association accustomed him; a creature given to sudden and uncontrollable injury to self or to those who injure him. His overpowering instinct such cases is flight, frequently, but always, associated with a determination to clear himself from any periling surroundings. He has no ings of revenge unless trained to him by the abuse or the mistake mankind, and when these prevail rarely wreaks his vengeance upon particular individual, but upon humanity in general, with no regard for sex.

The sentiment of revenge is so ly associated with cowardice that may almost be classed as a phobia that instinct. Cowardice manifests itself in equine connection in many ways. One it is terror of the night, which will make him kick his stall, doing himself possibly so injury, yet in nine cases out of ten light left in the stable will so pletely reassure him that he will lift a foot. Another is alarm blowing paper, yet stands by while cannon are fired in his face. This very attribute of cowardice which enables us to handle the horse as we do, to train him to our will for our purpose, which makes, once he is thoroughly deceived and intimidated, the useful servant we him, not a willing slave, but one fears again to tempt reprisals. have always proved effective, and labors for us because he has made to do so and fears to rebel. to the most docile the idea that may successfully disobey, and, you shall discover another attribute the coward, for your steed for becomes a bully, and a very dangerous, since each little act of rebellion which succeeds awakens him to idea that he need not obey and power and will he is superior. with disaster impends.—D. M. W. Outing Magazine.

Can You Pronounce Them?

He had just returned from England where he had hobnobbed, he claimed, with the nobility.

"I have here," he said, taking a book from his pocket, "a list of lish names that are not pronounced they are spelled. This list will set you. You will see from it that your life you have pronounced such names as Leveson-Gower, C Carew, St. Léger, Hawarden, fract, and so on."

He then read off the following list, giving, first, the words themselves, and, second, their right pronunciation.

Bertie.	Bartie.
Pontefract.	Pomfret.
Innis-Ker.	Ins-Kar.
Vernoy.	Varney.
Berkley.	Barkly.
Pole-Carew.	Pole-Carey.
Jervis.	Jarvis.
St. Léger.	Sillegier.
Pepys.	Peeps.

Glamis.	Glavms.
Hawarden.	Horden.
Malnwarling.	Mannering.
Beauchamp.	Beecham.
Beaulien.	Beely.
St. John.	Sinjohn.

"I always knew," he concluded, "that (holmondeley was Chumli Derby Darby, but who would ever imagined that Carew was Caremis Glavms or Pontefract Pom."

Eleven Memorable Days

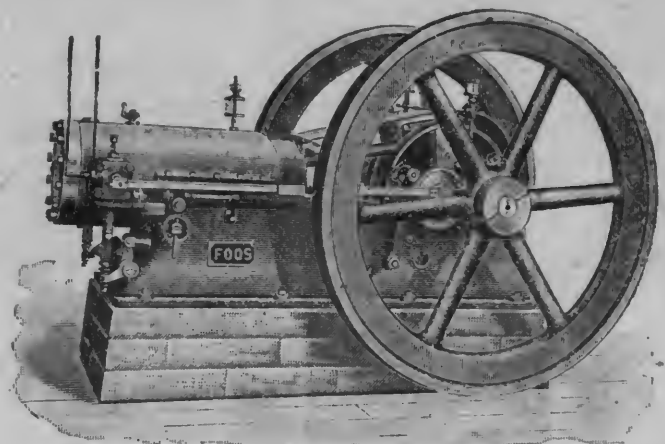

The eleven days from Sept. 2 inclusive, are memorable for once been entirely omitted from calendar of the Anglo-Saxon. The Gregorian calendar was not by the British empire until long after most other nations civilized world had conformed. In that year an act of parliament scribed that the next year, 1752 begin on Jan. 1, instead of on 25, as had previously been the and that in the following September these eleven days should be from the calendar, the day of Sept. 2 being known as Sept. 1 ring times those were, too, if days were not lightly to be from a year, with Clive conquering India and Washington beginning conquest of the Ohio valley. procession of the equinoxes note of trifles like these, which be accomplished as well uncalendrical style as another. be observed that, while Grego ped only ten days from 1582 days had to go from 1752, and would have to drop thirteen square her dates with the rest world.—New York Tribune.

Shopping In Brazil.

Shopping in Brazil is difficult. merchants block their own door, an overweening desire to see w people are doing. If you are buying something, the shopkeeper no, apparent interest either business or his own. In reply inquiry for an article he is quick to say he hasn't got it, although be plausibly in sight. And should point it out he will smile and his eyebrows, as if to say, "W alistent bore you foreigners a perhaps, if you ask for a p thing, he will direct you to the drawer where it ought to be. you to search for it yourself, hurries back to the street, gossiping. No matter how frequently you buy, there is a discount, and if you object to it, he will shrug his shoulders and his entire countenance in that way all the time. You will find it difficult to get a good bargain in Brazil.

FOOS GAS AND GASOLINE ENGINES

Last longer and give better service than any engine on the market. Why? Because only the best material and workmanship that money can buy are used in their construction. They are the most accessible, simplest and easiest to operate of any engine sold today.

A few of the superior points are: The governor, with which you can change the speed while running. Economy of fuel, due to the construction of the valves and positive action of the governor. The igniter, which makes a spark one-half inch long; will start the engine on the first turn and is guaranteed not to foul. The balance weights on the crank shaft instead of on the fly wheels, which insure steady running and minimum of wear on the bearings. The lubricating system, and lots of others that we will tell you about if you will just give us a chance. We have samples on the floor and can give you a demonstration any time.

We also carry in stock a full line of Belle City and Ross Feed Cutters, the best of their kind. Kemp Manure Spreaders, Vehicles, Wagons, Implements, Seeds, Coal, Salt, etc. You need our goods and we need your money. Give us a call.

nent farmers and traders and for many years was the senior member of the firm of McIntyre & McClintock. About three years ago he severed his connection with this firm and since then he has been doing business alone. This is his second matrimonial venture. About ten years ago he married Miss Carrie Current, second daughter of Mr. H. H. Current. She lived but a few years, leaving a bright little daughter, Caroline. Miss Marr is a popular and accomplished young lady of Henderson, Ga., possessing a rare musical talent. She has many relatives and friends in this State. It was while visiting friends at Carlisle in August 1905, that she and Mr. McIntyre met for the first time. They soon became good friends, which rapidly ripened into love which will culminate in their marriage on the above date. They will return Friday or Saturday and go to housekeeping at once in his beautiful home on North Main street. May their lives be as bright and happy in their entirety as on their wedding day, is the wish of a multitude of friends.

The Greatest of All

The Ober-Ammergrau Passion Play.

Better, the original; Grandeur, with more accessories than ever seen before. This grand and magnificent motion picture was taken, while the play was being enacted, by Thomas A. Edison, at a cost of $40,000.

And is more than 13 of a mile long. It constitutes one of the grandest sacred scenes it is possible to witness. Church-goers of all denominations should not fail to take advantage of this opportunity.

Nine-tenths of them have never seen it.

And it is a duty you owe to yourself to witness at least one of these remarkable performances.

This great scene will be supplemented by 52 views of the principle scenes in the life of Christ.

Besides, the beautiful illustrated "Rock of Ages" and the beautiful illustrated "In the Shadow of the Cross."

It will be presented with beautiful stage effects at the Grand Opera House, December 17 (Monday) for one night only.

Reserved seats will be on sale three days in advance at Oberdorfer's secure them early.

Notice to Paris Ladies.

The ladies who are so deeply interested in the building of a hospital for Paris are desirous of meeting every lady in the city at the Elks' building this Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Bring your children with you. A gentleman will be present at this meeting who is to begin at once to rehearse for an entertainment for the Hospital Fund, which they intend to put on at the Opera House on December 19th. This is proposed to be one of the grandest entertainments of the kind ever given in Paris. Let all of the ladies be present and go into this matter with a vim and determination to have a hospital.

Passion Play.

At this season of the year the early approach of Christmas, suggests to the mind the meaning of that word in all its significance. It is a celebration of the advent of the Christian era. The majesty and beauty of the word will appeal to you more strongly than ever before, and a newer and truer meaning of Christmas will come over you with overwhelming force, if you see the beautiful Passion Play Monday night the 14th. To the student, the geologist, the antiquarian, the sight-seer, the theologian, the folk lore of the old countries has ever appealed strongly to their inmost nature. Perhaps by none is this desire more forcibly felt than by that large class the students of Bible history. There is an intuitive feeling of religion in every heart and to the laymen of the church the desire to know and view sacred scenes amid their actual surroundings amounts to almost a frenzy of feeling.

Sherlock Holmes in his monologues has met with instantaneous success to vast audiences night after night, in his lectures on travel in foreign countries, illustrating the same by the latest motion pictures. In such scenes as the Holy City, trips to Palestine and the Passion Play his success has been phenomenal. He (Holmes) showed these scenes to 1500 people nightly for a period of three weeks. The Passion Play was originated by the peasants of Ober-Ammergau, a province in Austria-Hungary, and that place has now become famous by reason of it. The Ober-Ammergau is the only genuine Passion Play. Secure your seats early.

Holding For Fifteen Cents.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circular and testimonials. Address:

"SAVED MY LIFE"

—That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don't use or refer to testimonials in addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of occasional note. From infancy to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying improper and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does it does through nourishment—the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food. No system is too weak or delicate to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

We will send you a sample free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bae, Ky., He writes: "Twenty years ago I severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures hemorrhages, Chronic coughs, settled colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for weak lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by Oberdorfer, the druggist. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Hospital Association.

The ladies of the Hospital Association will hold a meeting the last of the week with a full attendance of all those interested in the Paris Hospital work. Let this work be revived with increased interest our neighbor city of Cynthiana started the question there after we began and they will have a hospital in running order before Paris gets started good. No city in Kentucky needs a hospital like Paris does, and it is an institution that every one should take an interest in.

If some of our capitalists desire to build a monument that would stand to the end of time in memory of his name now is the time—talk to the ladies.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Iowa, but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach." Guaranteed by Oberdorfer, the druggist. Price 50c.

Fortunate Missourians.

"When I was a druggist at Livonia, Mo.," writes T. J. Dwyer, now of Graysville, Mo., "three of my customers were permanently cured of consumption by Dr. King's New Discovery, and are well and strong today. One was trying to sell his property and move to Arizona, but after using New Discovery a short time he found it unnecessary to do so. I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as the most wonderful medicine in existence." Surest cough and cold cure and throat and lung healer. Guaranteed by Oberdorfer, the druggist. 50c and 1.00. Trial bottle free.

The Southern Railway is 23 miles the shortest from Louisville to Nashville and forty-three miles the shortest to St. Louis.

Dangers of Defective Plumbing!

Defective plumbing permits the entrance into the house of sewer gas bearing germs of contagious disease to which the human system readily succumbs. Sewer gas is not necessarily generated in the sewer, but is frequently created in the plumbing system within the home and enters the apartments through defective fixtures. If in doubt consult us regarding the piping and repairing defective fixtures with "STANDARD" Porcelain Enamelled Ware, acknowledged as the best sanitary equipment.

READ AND YOU WILL LEARN

That the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice endorse and recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic low affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultant, as bronchial, throat and lung diseases (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Pinley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula on the bottle wrapper is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous or harmful agents and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful ingredient in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

A booklet of extracts from eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Lexington Herald says the price of coal was reduced in that city yesterday. The decrease amounts to twenty-five to forty-five cents per ton. The drop in price is not the result of a reduction at the mines, because there has been none. The reason is that the dealers there now have a good supply on hand and more coal is coming in daily.

The greater part now reaching there comes from the Bell and Knox county fields over the Louisville & Nashville railway, and Eastern Kentucky over the Chesapeake and Ohio. Some coal is also coming in from the Lee county mines over the Lexington & Eastern. It is not expected that a further decrease in price will go into effect soon, unless there is a reduction at the mines.

BLOCK LIGHTS.

I have a large stock of the famous

Farmers Frightened.

A special from Hopkinsville says: "The citizens of this section are in actual terror over the destruction of the two stemmers at Princeton by the masked mob last Saturday night. Receipts of tobacco here Monday and Tuesday were unusually heavy, a large part of it coming from the Princeton district."

The farmers who had sold their crops to the trust warehouses are seemingly filled with fear that their barns may be destroyed any night, and they are straining every nerve to deliver their tobacco before they are visited by the raiders. Some of the wagons which reached here in the last twenty-four hours had been traveling at night."

Deaths From Appendicitis

Decrease in the same ratio that the use of Dr. King's New Life Pills increases. They save you from danger and bring quick and painless release from constipation and its growing out of it. Strength and vigor always follow their use. Guaranteed by Oberdorfer, the druggist. 25 cents. Try them.

—Kenney Nichols purchased of Ardery & Allison 8,000 pounds of tobacco at 6 cents.

A Mountain of Gold

Could not bring as much happiness to Mrs. Lucia Wilke, of Caroline, Wis., as did one box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, when it completely cured a running sore on her leg, which had tortured her 23 long years. Greatest antiseptic healer of piles, wounds and sores. 25 cents at Oberdorfer's drug store. no —At the three burley tobacco warehouse in Lexington Wednesday 100,000 pounds of tobacco were sold for an average price of 10 cents per pound. D. M. McLoud, representing McLoud & Sons, limited, Liverpool, England, made a contract Wednesday with C. W. Bohmer, of the Burley Loose Tobacco Warehouse, for several thousand hogsheads of tobacco.

Good News to Women.

Father William's Indian Tea, Nature's Remedy, is becoming the most popular Female Remedy in use.

Pale, Weak, Nervous, Delicate Women suffering from those weaknesses and diseases, peculiar to their sex, will find in Father William's Indian Tea a wonderful Tonic and Regulator. T. Brooks.

Thomas Jefferson Tonight.

The most welcome theatrical news local playgoers have heard or read this season will doubtless be the announcement that Thomas Jefferson is coming to the Paris Opera House tonight! He will appear in his famous characterization of "Rip Van Winkle," in which he is inimitable, and with the perfect and delightful presentation of which his name has been distinguishedly associated for the past eight years. Over a million people have enjoyed Mr. Jefferson's skillful and polished acting in this role. There is more than art in Mr. Jefferson's Rip. His own winning personality is a distinct and powerful factor in it, all the heart, humor, tenderness, gentility and intellectual and artistic qualities of the man being charmingly interwoven with traits of the fictional hero. It is part in which one can see Mr. Jefferson a thousand times and get even greater satisfaction and enjoyment from the last performance than from the first. It is a part that woos you, that gets under your vest, as it were, and that acquaintance which only makes for a desire to enjoy it again and again results. Mr. Jefferson is playing it with the fervor and enthusiasm of his youth.

Postmaster Robbed.

G. W. Fouts, postmaster of Riverton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters, which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for biliousness, neuralgia, weakness and all stomach, liver, kidney and bladder ailments. A wonderful medicine.

A Difficult Matter.

There was strong family feeling in Brooklyn whenever any question affecting a member of the little community arose. The matter of Abel Wood's arrest illustrated the state of affairs.

"You see, we all knew he'd been dishonest in his dealings and that he'd ought to be put away for a spell, and the warrant was issued," said Mr. Hall, explaining to a visitor what seemed like an unnecessary delay in a simple process of the law, "but 'twas kind of hard for us to settle on the best place to arrest him."

"You see, it had got to be done either at his mother's—that's the only good woman for entry scrubbing in the place—or else at his uncle's—that's the express agent, and none too obliging even when he's feeling pleasant—or else at his brother-in-law's—that's the only man in town that's got a first class carpenter's set-out, monkey wrench and all. Anyway, the sheriff, being his first cousin, made it kind of awkward, now I tell you."

"Seems to me we did pretty well to get him arrested inside of a week, considering what drawbacks we had to contend with."

To Run the Gantlet.

"To run the gantlet" originated in Germany and traveled thence to England, finally becoming domesticated in America. In both the German and English armies and navies about the time of the settlement of America running the gantlet was a punishment for misdemeanor, the soldiers of a company or regiment being placed in two lines facing each other, each man armed with a switch. The culprit ran between the two files and received upon his bare back the switches of his comrades. An officer stood by to see that the punishment was properly enforced, and any soldier who failed to do his duty was himself liable to make the journey between the two files. The Indians along the coast of Virginia are said to have observed this punishment inflicted upon some sailors of an English man-of-war and immediately adopted the idea for torturing their enemies; hence came the belief that the punishment or torture was peculiar to the aborigines of North America.

Scene from "Rip Van Winkle."

Masculine Raiment.

Until the last century, in variety and magnificence, the human male followed the rule of the lower animals that the male shall predominate in brilliance. No woman has ever ruled through pure modishness. There has never been a feminine counterpart of Beau Brummel. All varieties of exquisite are male, whether dandy, macaroni or beau, and not because they are exceptions to the general rule of sobriety, but because of a superior originality and more forcible and distinguished expression. In the point of extravagance there has never been (until the last century) any difference between male and female costume. The Duke of Buckingham took twenty-seven suits of clothes to Paris in 1625, one of white uncut velvet set all over with diamonds, worth £14,000. He also wore a diamonded feather and diamond buttons and earrings. A curious fashion for men prevailed in 1612 of ornamenting the ear with strings of black velvet ribbon, also of placing a rose behind the ear.—London Saturday Review.

He Was a Man.

A Scot of Peebles said to his friend MacAndrew, "Mac, I hear ye have fallen in love wi' bonny Kate McAllister." "Weel, Sanders," Mac replied, "I was near-very near-daein' it, but the lassie had nae siller, so I said to myself, 'Mac, be a mon.' And I was a mon, and noo I pass her by wi' silent contempt."

Group of Cow Girls in "The Tenderfoot."

Two Mohammedans.

Here is a tale from O'Donovan's "Merry" illustrating the bitterness of feeling between the various sects of the followers of Mohammed: O'Donovan had offered his Mohammedan attendant, who happened to be a Shiite, some of his cold chicken, which the man took at first and chewed ruminantly. Suddenly, however, he spat the mouthful out, exclaiming, "Who cooked this?" since it is a sin for a Moslem to eat food cooked by an infidel. "Oh, it's all right," replied O'Donovan. "It was cooked by your coreligionists down there," pointing to a city of Sunnites. "What?" exclaimed the Shiite furiously. "By those infernal Sunnites? I shouldn't have minded much if it had been cooked by you or any other ghaour, but by a Sunnite! Pah!" And he spat again in his disgust. "But what is the difference between Shiite and Sunnite? Aren't both good Moslems?" "What is the difference between us? Don't you know that when a Shiite washes his hand he lets the water drip from the wrist, but when those Sunnites wash their hands they let the water drip from the elbow?"

Woman's Lot In Bavaria.

If there is any one country of civilized Europe that is away behind her sisters in her treatment of the fair sex it is Bavaria most assuredly. There all the hard work falls to the women, while men, it seems, are at best superintendents of their labor. The feminine portion of the population of this strangely unprogressive country makes its living by sawing wood, carrying mortar and bricks and even doing all the manual labor of building houses. Even the municipality itself encourages the employment of women along these lines by allowing the tramway company to hire women for cleaning out the tram rails. Indeed, in Munich especially, women seem to have replaced men in all those harder kinds of labor which are always intrusted to the stronger sex in other more progressive and civilized communities.

BUSINESS SENSE.

A Well Ordered Desk Means a Well Ordered Mind.

"There's one piece of advice," said the senior partner, "that I'd like to give every young man taking a business position with a desk attached to it. It's this: Keep your desk clean. What I mean by having a desk clean is keeping everything possible off it except that which is related to the matter in hand. I've observed in my time a good many men in their offices, and I can say that with very few exceptions the real men of affairs are those who are free from clutter."

"With a lot of papers in front of you it's almost a certainty that some hour in the day you're going to be flustered, and very likely it will be just when you want a clear head. The old idea that a mass of material every which way on the desk is a sign that a person is full of business is pretty well worn. Such a collection not only indicates a lack of order, but also is a sign that nervousness may be expected from the man in the chair. What with filing cabinets and other devices no excuse can be offered nowadays for confusion. "A well ordered desk means a well ordered mind, a mind taking up one thing at a time and giving it the proper attention. It denotes regularity and concentrated, effective effort."—New York Press.

The Revolver.

The revolver is of dubious service in war. Its only function there is as a cavalry weapon. Indeed, it is an evolution of the medieval purpose to provide horse soldiers with a firearm. In the cavalry the weapon is effective only up to fifty yards. It has no value for hunting. The average man can do more execution on birds and beasts with a slingshot. The only purpose which the revolver serves is to kill another man, and even for that purpose its usefulness is overestimated.—New York Mail.

Where the Audience Was.

A London actor appearing at a cheap theater in Salford found so small an audience that he sought out the manager for an explanation. "You see," the manager told him, "my people are at the Halle concert." "Oh," the actor said, surprised, "I should hardly have thought your patrons would care much for high class music." "No," the other explained; to tell the truth, they go to pick pockets."

Trouble For Nothing.

To smuggle a human skeleton into Canada from Detroit a medical student dressed it in female attire and, seating it by his side in a buggy, crossed over the boundary line. After he got safely into his house he learned that there is no custom duty on skeletons.

How mankind defers from day to day the best it can do without thinking that lost time is lost eternity.—Muller.

"DO IT TO-DAY!"

"And to think that ten months ago I looked like this! I owe it to German Syrup."

"The time-worn injunction, 'Never put off 'til to-morrow what you can do to-day,' is now generally presented in this form: 'Do it to-day!'" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it TO-DAY—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. Young Debaters Getting Ready.

The Kentucky Inter-Collegiate Debating Association, which was a pronounced success last year, will again be resumed this year among the colleges of the association. The different literary societies have chosen representatives among which we note:

Kentucky University—Reuben B. Hutchcraft, of the Periclean Society; H. M. Stansifer, of Cecropian Society.

Mr. Hutchcraft is an eloquent young orator and the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hutchcraft, of Paris. This year Georgetown and Central University will meet in debate at Danville, and the Kentucky State College will engage in the orfense contest at Kentucky University. Central University will submit the question for debate to Georgetown; likewise State will submit the question to K. U. The questions will be submitted within a few days.

"The Tenderfoot."

That dashing operatic comedy, "The Tenderfoot," with Oscar L. Figman and Ruth White as the stars, will be at the Grand on Thursday Dec. 13.

The music of this piece has made it a general favorite, as there is a swing about it that sets the feet tapping and the blood moving faster. H. L. Hertz, who is responsible for the score or more of tunes, caught the spirit of Richard Carle's book when he wrote the music. It is characteristically Western in its free swing and easy rhyme. Carle's book is not only witty, but there is a well defined plot that carries the story to a definite conclusion.

Mr. Figman and Miss White will be generally remembered as the stars of the big revival of "The Burgomaster," which was seen here two seasons ago and which made such a hit on account of the general excellence of the cast. "The Tenderfoot" is under the same management and it is promised that it is the largest production of the opera that has been seen on the road, being an exact replica of that in Chicago during the three runs there.

Mr. Figman is said to have surprised even his warmest admirers by his work as Professor Pettibone and he is being hailed as the coming low comedian of the day. Miss White brings to the role of Marion a fine soprano voice and much personal charm. The remainder of the cast is well known. In the company are Jethro Warner, a tenor of achievements; Fred Bailey, George E. Romain, Milton Baldwin, Harry B. Williams, one of the best dancers on the stage; Louise Brackett, Etta Lockhart and Frankie Warner. Some of the best remembered songs in "The Tenderfoot" are "My Alamo Love," "The Thomas Cat," "Adois," "I'm a Soldier of Fortune" and "Only a Kiss."
